ORCHESTRA AND MUSICALES.

In the early part of last autumn, our revenues having; been diminished by the failure of the lessee of the Academy to pay the rent, our professional orchestical pay the rent, our professional orchestical pay then as much as they considered their services were worth, and we were undeathy and unexpectedly left with no requiar resource for the instrumental portion of our programmes other than our Amateur Grochestra, who, thanks to Mr. E. R. Archer, an efficient and outhusiastic member of your Board of Governors, have not only been kept together, but under the direction of Professor John Kessnich considerably improved in efficiency.

On October ist of last year the Amateur Grochestra offered for a reasonable consideration to furnish such professional instrumental talent as might be necessary to complete their band, and to appear in two musicules a month instead of in one, as originally agreed. This arrangement has worked well, and your board has been able to give musicules which have generally afforded satisfaction.

In December last, by a vote of the association formanicated through postal-cards sent them for the purpose, it was determined to reduce the number of musicules to two a month instead of one a week. This arrangement commenced the last of February last.

INCRESSE OF MEMBERSHIP.

DELEGATES TO FETERSBURG.

At the request of the Petersburg Musical Association your Board of Governors have appointed five delegates to represent the Richmond Mocari Association in the seventh Musical Convention, to be held in Petersburg, Va., on the 10th and 11th instant. The fifth annual Musical Festival, to be held in connection with the convention on the Sth. 2th, 10th, and 11th instant, promises to be a grand affair, as is usual with everything of the kind gotten up by that intelligent, estimistate, and cultivated musician and gentleman. H. Noltentus, Esq., and the Petersburg Musical Association.

As special trains will be run from this city on at least two days of the testival—returning after the close of the evening concerts—it is hoped that a large number of our members and citizens generally will attend. The festival will be held in the new Academy of Music, and will be conducted by Carl Zerrahn, of Boston.

In addition to six distinguished vocal soloists there will be a festival chorus of 230 voices and an orchestra of 32 musicians. At the matinee Friday, 11th instant, at 1 P. M., there will appear a chorus of 400 children—pupits of the public schools of Petersburg—who have been beautifully traited in music.

During the past year Meesra. E. A. Cailin. James Lyons, Thomas Bolling, Jr., and William Ryan have been elected members of the Board of Governors to fill vacancies. The board now consists of the following gendemen: T. William Pemberton, John F. Allet, F. M. Boykin, Samuel Hirsh, Dr. George B. Steel, James Lyons, John Tyler, E. A. Hoen, Dr. W. Leigh Burton, E. R. Archer, Dr. J. B. McCaw, Thomas Boiling, Jr., William Ryan, A. Bargamin, George P. Sacv, Henry T. Miller, Thomas Potts, H. P. Edmond, J. W. Pegram, E. A. Catlin, and William E. Tanser.

The election of Mr. Pemberton as vice-president affords an opportunity to say that the statement made in one of the city papers that he will soon go abroad to spend several years is erroneous. Averse to receive addresses, yet unable to prevent them. I have generally endeavored to turn them to some account by making them the occasion, by way of answer. of sowing useful trushs and principles among the people, which might germinate and become rooted among their political treats. The liaptist address now inclosed admits of a condemnation of the althance between Church and State under the authority of the Constitution. It furnishes an occasion, too, which have long wished to find, of saying why I do not proclaim fastings and thanksgivings, as my predecessors did. The address, to be aure, does not point at this, and its introduction is awward. But I foresee no opportunity of doing it more pertinently. I know it will give greas offence to the New England clergy, but the advocate of religious freedom is to expect neither peace aor forgiveness from them. Will you be so good as to examine the answer and suggest any alterations which might prevent an ill effect or promots a good one among the people? You undorstand the temper of these in the North and can weaken it therefore to their stemachs. It is at present seasoned to the southern taste ouly. I would ask the favor of you to return it with the address in the course of the day or evening. Health and affection.
